Beaverdale Park

Park and Recreation Board...Did You Know?

June 24, 2014
History

- Part of Kingman’s Orchard Plat
- Purchased by Eva Philpotts in 1919 from Martha Kingman
- The Philpotts constructed a house near the current park entrance
- Became known as Philpott Park
History

• 1923 Eva gave her equity in property to the City
• Intended to remain as a city park
• 1925 City acquired property
• 1932 City takes possession
• 1933 Home is removed from site
Beaverdale Park

- 3333 Adams Avenue
- 25 Acres
- Playground
- Open air shelter
- Restrooms
- Parking lot
Beaverdale Park

- Open play field
- Picnic areas
- Oak woodland and forest
- Inter-Urban Trail